

PARKER J ALLEN – CEO – PARTHENON – JAPAN

“In July 2022, Paul did a bespoke hybrid improv and business presentation skills training session for my team in Tokyo.

His ability to break the ice, give us actionable feedback on each member’s strengths and growth areas, and provide us with a fun and engaging experience was truly beneficial and thought-provoking.

Out of all of the options for a company seeking a different kind of team-building and skill enhancement experience, I have to say that Paul’s approach based on his extensive work with actors and businesspeople contributed to something highly valuable and memorable”.
